

to the heirs male of his body, and with the title of Baron or Baroness for all his male descendants and their daughters. This dignity he had received the previous sanction of Queen Victoria to accept, and he had Royal License for himself and the heirs male of his body to assume and use the same in the United Kingdom 17 Oct. following. See p. 23.

BOXALL [S.C.G. 1900]. See Boxall, Baron.

BOY. Eric Boy [of a Scottish family] served in the English and Dutch Navies and afterwards became a Capt. in the Swedish, and was ENNOBLED [Sweden No. 1128] by King Charles XI. under the name of Gyldenboij 1688.<sup>1</sup> Extinct.

BOY. Anders Boij [son of Henry Boy, Commander of a Scottish fortress, and Elizabeth Nisbeth], came to Sweden and was Burgomaster of Stockholm 1663, being ENNOBLED 1676.<sup>2</sup> Extinct.

DE BOZAS. Don Joseph (de Bozas), COUNT OF CASTELBLANCO (CONDE DE CASTELBLANCO) in Spain, was 4 Feb. 1717 cr. by James VIII. DUKE CASTELBLANCO and DUKE OF ST. ANDREWS, &c. [S.]. He had issue,<sup>3</sup> but of it nothing is known.

BRAAM. Jan Andries van Braam, a District Magistrate for British Honduras [great-grandson of Jacob Pieter van Braam, Vice-Admiral of Holland (b. 27 Oct. 1717), whose nephew (the son of his eldest half-brother), Ægidius van Braam, Vice-Admiral of the Netherlands, was cr. by patent, dated at The Hague 8 July 1816, a JONKHEER], was naturalized as a British subject by a Colonial certificate dated at Belize 19 Nov. 1864,<sup>4</sup> and is incorrectly<sup>5</sup> described as a JONKHEER in that portion of Burke's Peerage dealing with Foreign titles borne by British subjects from 1899 (p. 1617) until his death s.p. 19 July 1904.

BRACERAS [Spain 1707]. See Heaven, Marchioness of.

BRAND. John Brand, an Officer in the English Navy, entered the Swedish Service 1669, and was ENNOBLED [Sweden No. 1145] under the name of Anckarcreutz in 1686.<sup>6</sup> His descendants are extinct.

BRANDT. Jules Gustave Ladislaus Brandt, COUNT BRANICKI, M.A., Ph.D., D.C.L., &c., of the Universities of Königsberg, Bonn, Munich, and Member of the Faculty of the Academy, Paris (known as Professor Brandt); d. at Ealing 24 Nov. 1896.<sup>7</sup>

BRANICKI [? Poland]. See Brandt, Count.

BRETHERTON. See Stapleton-Bretherton.

DE BRIENEN. Baroness Irene de Brien, da. of the late BARON DE BRIENEN, m. 14 Apr. 1904 the Hon. Cyril Augustus Ward, M.V.O.; Baroness Lily de Brien, da. of a BARON and BARONESS DE BRIENEN, m. 14 Nov. 1905 Capt. Cecil Bunbury; and a Baroness Margaret de Brien resides in London.

BRINCKMAN. Theodore, BARON BRINCKMAN, a native of Hanover, came to England with George I., by whom he was appointed Yeoman of the Guard. He died 23 Oct. 1741. His 2nd son (Baron), John Richard Brinckman, was naturalized by a Private Act of Parliament,<sup>8</sup> and took the oaths 15 Dec. 1740, and was grandfather of Theodore Henry Brinckman, otherwise Broadhead, cr. a Bart. [U.K.] 30 Sept. 1831.

BROC. The COMTESSE DE BROC owned the great tithes of Cholsey, co. Berks, 188-.

BRONTÉ [Two Sicilies 1801]. See Nelson, and Hood, Duke of.

BROWN. George Brown, "COUNT OF THE HOLY ROMAN EMPIRE, Lieut.-Gen. of the armies of His Imperial and Catholic Majesty, Counsellor of War and Col. of a Regt. of Infantry," is so described in the Warrant by James III. creating him an Earl [I.], with rem. to his brother Ulysses 12 Apr. 1726.<sup>9</sup> He was father of George, Count of the Holy Roman Empire, b. 1678, a

<sup>1</sup> Marryat, ii. 486; Sveriges Adel.

<sup>2</sup> Marryat, ii. 486.

<sup>3</sup> See Ruvigny's Jacobite Peerage, p. 161.

<sup>4</sup> Burke's Peerage.

<sup>5</sup> Ex inform. M. Bijleveld, who remarks this is absolutely incorrect, as has been noted in our papers. Dutch titles only pass to the direct descendants of the original grantee.

<sup>6</sup> Marryat, ii. 485.

<sup>7</sup> Memoriam notices in The Times.

<sup>8</sup> 14 Geo. II., No. 51.

<sup>9</sup> Ruvigny's Jacobite Peerage, p. 22.